

Introducing Spinifex Recruiting – The new name for the Spinifex Australia Group of Companies – Smalls Recruiting, GWS Personnel and JHA Recruitment.

I'd like to share some news about an exciting change in our business, one that I'm confident will strengthen our capabilities and enhance our ability to service you, our valued client.

In 2012, Australian recruitment businesses Smalls Recruiting, GWS Personnel & JHA Recruitment merged to create the Spinifex Group. As of 1 August 2016, the Spinifex Group will evolve into the new identity of Spinifex Recruiting, offering one consistent service across our unique geographical footprint.

Why did we join forces?

This partnership is a natural fit between three complementary businesses with outstanding people and shared values, and one that will allow us to further expand our services while still maintaining our personalised approach to doing business.

Each of the businesses has a strong heritage of respectful and lasting relationships with its clients. We are all committed to building deep connections with the organisations and communities we service, knowing that's the best way to place the right people, in good time, for the best result. I know this because the Directors Peter O'Donnell, Jane Heynes and myself have worked together for a number of years. This is in itself a rare feat in our industry and it gives us great confidence because we know the relationship works.

Why is it better for you?

By continuing to work with us as Spinifex Recruiting, you will benefit from working with a larger organisation that has:

- an unrivalled depth of experience and industry specialisation
- offices on the ground in nine locations around NSW and ACT
- the unique capability to solve recruitment challenges across the city, country and coast.

What won't be changing?

You will continue to liaise with the same people you always have, including our longstanding team members that have a deep understanding of your business.

We will still support the local communities we work in, because that's a core part of our heritage and something we firmly believe is vital to our success.

Most importantly, we will continue to offer high-calibre temporary workers when and where you need them. And we'll still be great value.

Thank you in advance for your continued support. We look forward to sharing the benefits of this exciting new chapter in our business with you.

If you have any questions, please contact your Spinifex Recruiting team member.

Regards,
